

NOTICE OF DISHONOR

(Section 2913.11 Ohio Revised Code)

Date: _____

To: _____

From: _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Re: Check No. _____ Dated _____ Amount _____

Payable to: _____

Drawn By: _____

Dear _____,

You are hereby given official notice of dishonor of check no. _____, dishonored by the _____ Bank on _____

Your failure to make good this check or otherwise satisfy this instrument within twenty (20) days after receiving this official notice of dishonor could be a violation of Section 2913.11 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio, which describes the criminal offense of passing bad checks.

If you have any questions concerning the effect of a possible violation of Section 2913.11 of the Ohio Revised Code, I suggest you contact your attorney.

Sincerely,

_____
_____